

What is M:Tech?

M:Tech is a unique music and media technology course for children of 7-11 in KS2. M:Tech suits children of all abilities, from children who already play an instrument through to those discovering music for the first time.

Our course is about composing music, balancing a traditional musical learning curve with access to the latest creative technologies. Focusing on key musical concepts such as melody, harmony, rhythm and arrangement, we ensure that each child gains a full understanding of how music is created, note by note.

Each term children work in pairs and complete a fun and engaging project module by creating music to various forms of media. Projects range from making music for TV adverts or movie trailers, through to producing radio shows and composing in a range of musical styles.

Each term parents receive a digital download of their child's composition as well as M:Tech level books and progress certificates.

How we work...

M:Tech works in the same way as group instrumental lessons. Classes take place on a weekly basis either during lunchtimes or after school. Please carefully read our terms & conditions as it is important to understand that M:Tech is different from school activity clubs.

Our Terms & Conditions

Notice: Written notice of withdrawal must be received by half term in order for lessons to cease at the end of that term. You will be charged one term's fees for late notice.

Lessons: M:Tech deliver as many weekly sessions as the school calendar allows. This number fluctuates depending on term lengths. Classes are thirty minutes each week.

Billing: Fees are £92 per term based on 10 lessons. Your bill will be adjusted to reflect the exact number of lessons in a term.

Missed Lessons: We are unable to reimburse for missed lessons in the event of illness, forgetfulness or unforeseen circumstances beyond our control. In the event of teacher absence or illness we will arrange for the class to be made up.
